Festivals & Events

SATURDAY, APRIL 9TH

Join us in downtown Anniston as historic Noble Street becomes 'cyclists and pedestrians-only' for a day. This FREE family festival features pro bike races, restaurants, music, crafts, a running race and healthy activities for kids.

The Noble Street Festival www.noblestreetfestival.com benefits Calhoun County Relay for Life, a fund-raiser of the local chapter of the American Cancer Society <http://www.cancer.org/> .

For more info, contact Noble Street Festival Director, Mike Poe, 256-236-6346,

Painting the Past...for the Future

Local artist, Joseph Giri, views his progress of the mural he's painting on the side wall of Moore Printing, in the alley off Gurnee Avenue in Anniston.

This mural is one of a number of efforts to mark the 50th Anniversary of the Freedom Rides.

Click here to read the article written by Ben Cunningham, Star Metro Editor, which appeared in The Anniston Star, Monday, March 28, 2011.
